I have been advised that I have the constitutional right to remain absolutely silent, that I need not make any statement that may tend to incriminate me, and if I do that it may be used in a court of law against me. I have also been told that if I cannot afford a lawyer, then one will be appointed without cost to represent me. No force has been used nor promises or threats made in obtaining this statement.

On October 4th 2017 at 9:50 pm I met with Robbert Woods at a bar next to his apartment. He had one Beer and went back to his room. He made our drinks while I had my back turned. He added sugar cubes and possibly other things I was unaware of. I have a video looking out the window and you can see him adding things to the drink. Once he made the drink he told me to play a game where we take a balloon (they were all over the ground) and who ever dropped the balloon had to chug the drink. He set it to the floor telling me to chug my drink which had one shot of Absolut and I'm not sure what else. After I chugged my drink he made another with half a shot and we sat down to watch a movie. He started kissing me and I told him I was Engaging his Company and pushed away. He tried to get closer and I asked if I could go smoke a Cig. I went outside on his porch overlooking Chambellie feeling normal and at this point it is around 10:30 pm. He went inside he said to go to the bathroom about 5 min later he came back out we talked for maybe 5 mins more and from this point on his porcy I have absolute no memory what so ever of what happened. Being a person with a fairly high tolerance for alcohol I ended up after one beer and a shot and a half leave me loopy. My next concious moment is waking abruptly at about 6:15 am. I'm missing my underwear which is strange because I never sleep without it. I ask him if we had sex and he told me yes. I say I don't remember and he said "that's okay". In this moment I feel almost Ike I'm in a dream. I don't understand what's going on and I feel like I've lost all control. We decide to have sex again, I feel like I have control because I can remember it this time so I agree. The thought of having sex with this person and having no idea what happened made me okay to do it. When I can control it. I had my parties on the side of his bed he was on (I think he slept there) and memory is a blur. When I got in my car to leave I was so disoriented I couldn't figure out how to pay to get out of the parking garage once on the road I went down the wrong way of a one way went to back up and ran into a fence. During memory I could hardly stay in my lane and get honked at multiple times. He talked down

STATEMENT

I, [REDACTED] on the 6th day of October, 20 17 A.D., at (time) 8:25 at Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida, freely and voluntarily make the following statement. I have been advised that I have the constitutional right to remain absolutely silent, that I need not make any statement that may tend to incriminate me, and if I do that it may be used in a court of law against me. Telling him I didn't remember the first time we had sex but enjoyed the second and hoped I did make a fool of myself when I talked out. He said I was fine. He texted me a few hours later and said "You ALIVE?" I said hardly and he never responded after that and blocked me on everything.

There were a few red flags I ignored that I feel could have prevented this. At first he made it sound like there would be multiple people over when it was just him and I. At the bar he asked if I was on Birth Control and what type. When I told him I was he said it was his favorite. Because he works in a hospital I figured he seen a lot of accidents with other ones. I haven't spoken to him since.
